1. Government Body statement of behaviour principles

The aim of this Behaviour for Learning policy is to:

- ✓ create a culture of excellent Behaviour for Learning as a minimum expectation for all at Holy Trinity Catholic School.
- ✓ ensure that all pupils are treated fairly, shown respect and to promote good relationships.
- ✓ refuse to give pupils attention and importance for poor conduct
- ✓ help pupils take control over their behaviour and be responsible for the consequences of it.
- ✓ build a community which values kindness, care, good humour, good temper, obedience and empathy for others.
- ✓ ensure that all pupils Learn to love and love to learn.
- ✓ Support work of curriculum areas, RE and PSD in building character education, language for learning programme and SEND.

Our aims are underpinned by our legal duties under the Equality Act 2020, and any legislation in respect of safeguarding and in respect of pupils with special educational needs (SEN). For example, when punishing poor behaviour, all sanctions will be reasonable and will not breach this legislation.

2. Excellent Behaviour for Learning

It is vital that all pupils, staff and parents know what we expect Behaviour for Learning to look like.

A pupil demonstrating excellent Behaviours for Learning will:

- be a highly self-motivated pupil who takes full responsibility for all aspects of their learning.
- display an exceptional level of effort and commitment.
- complete tasks thoroughly, often with extra attention to detail and deadlines are always met.
- contribute to all parts of the lesson and will offer thoughtful and insightful understanding of the subject.
- be highly organised independent pupil.

Likely outcomes of these excellent Behaviours for Learning will allow pupils to make outstanding progress against target grades and therefore they are likely to achieve their academic potential. (See Appendix D for Attitude to Learning Descriptors).

3. Expectations;

a. Pupils

Only the highest standards of Behaviour for Learning are expected from our pupils. This applies to pupils on their way to and from school, on school trips and visits, and in some circumstances, at times outside of normal school hours (including trips and intervention sessions).

The Church teaches that The Holy Trinity is a community of equal but distinct persons – Father, Son and Holy Spirit, whose common nature is love. Our school seeks to reflect this by being a community where all are respected as equal and where differences are celebrated.

We are committed to the ideas expressed in the gospel of Jesus Christ and we foster a spirit of justice and reconciliation for all.

We seek to provide a safe and caring environment within which all pupils are helped to discover what is good and to develop the attitudes, skills and knowledge they need to become good citizens, who are true to themselves and to their own faith.

We have developed the Holy Trinity Pupils Values and pupils are encouraged to grow and develop a range of quality of character and learn how to be grateful, generous, attentive, discerning, compassionate, faith-filled, hopeful, eloquent, truthful, learned, wise, curious, active, intentional and prophetic. These quality of character complements our 5Rs programme as pupils are asked to be resilient, resourceful, ready to learn, responsible and reflective.

Pupils will be expected to:

- conduct themselves around the building in a safe, sensible, manner and show regard to others
- arrive on time to lessons
- bring equipment appropriate for the lesson
- follow instructions given by the teacher
- behave in a reasonable and polite manner to all staff and pupils
- show respect for the opinions and beliefs of others
- complete all class work in the manner required
- hand in homework at the time requested
- show respect for the working environment
- follow the school rules.

The behaviour expected on the school premises is also applicable to outside the school premises (such as on school or public transport, outside the local shops, in school trips) and virtually (e.g. using electronic devices). Behaviour by an individual or group, which is repeated over time, and that intentionally hurts another individual or group either physically or emotionally will be considered bullying. As such, this will always be considered a very serious breach of our school code of conduct and never tolerated; once reported to and dealt by staff, we expect any form of bullying including peer on peer abuse and sexual harassment to stop immediately. Further information can be found in our Anti-bullying Policy.

b. Staff

Consistency lies in the behaviour of adults and not simply in the application of procedure. A truly sustainable consistent approach does not come in a toolkit of strategies but in the determination of every member of staff to hold firm. It is hard fought and easily lost. The key is to develop a consistency that ripples through every interaction on behaviour. Where pupils feel treated as valued individuals they respect adults and accept their authority.

All Staff will be expected to:

- meet and greet at the door
- check pupil uniform and equipment
- create a swift and purposeful start to the lesson
- reinforce clear expectations of behaviour
- model positive behaviours and build relationships.
- plan lessons that engage, stretch, challenge and meet the needs of all pupils
- deal with incidents of inappropriate behaviour by following the school's procedures
- follow up every time, retain ownership and engage in reflective dialogue with pupils.
- never ignore or walk past pupils who are behaving badly.
- be aware of and follow the GDPR protocols related to record keeping.

- be aware of and follow safeguarding procedures outlined in the document Keeping Children Safe in Education (January 2021)

c. Parents/carers

At Holy Trinity Catholic School we recognise that parents and carers are the single biggest influence on their children and their achievements. Therefore, we are committed to building positive and responsive relationships with parents and carers, based on shared responsibility for our children, to ensure that they have the best possible experience at school. We all recognise that the success of the school and therefore our children's education is dependent on a strong partnership between all members of the school community: pupils, parents, staff and governors. This partnership must be based on a polite, positive and respectful relationship.

Parents and guardians are expected to:

- work in partnership with staff to ensure good behaviour
- inform staff of any concerns
- respond to concerns raised by members of staff
- ensure pupils come to school correctly equipped and prepared to work

4. Rewards system

We recognise and reward pupils who go 'over and above' our standards. Although there are tiered awards, our staff understand that a quiet word of personal praise can be as effective as a larger, more public, reward. The use of praise in developing a positive atmosphere in the classroom cannot be underestimated. It is the key to developing positive relationships, including with those pupils are hardest to reach.

Behaviour for Learning Points (BfL points) are awarded to pupils who show excellent attitudes to learning, qualities of character in line with the 5Rs Programme (Resilience, Resourcefulness, Readiness, Responsibility and Reflectiveness).

BfLs are linked to a tiered reward system, this system is complemented with Praise Cards (including for Home Learning), 'Good News' Letters and Certificates that are presented in Reward Assemblies. (Appendix H). We also hold an annual celebration evenings in which pupils and their families are invited to receive special awards in front of dignitaries. Alongside Faculty Leaders and Heads of Years Awards, there are also presented with the St Cecilia Award (for outstanding resilience), the Mary Boyce Award (for SEN pupils), the Mary Boyce Award (the Zillah Bennet Award (unsung heroes in science), the Waseem Muflahi Award (endeavour and dedication within Sport). These practices reinforce the value of positive Behaviour for Learning.

5. Sanctions and the consequences system

It is important to state that there is a subjective element to sanctions. Knowledge of the pupil, of the family background, of the likely outcome of a particular course of action are crucial.

Sanction decisions are based on judgement and experience and it is impossible to prescribe hard and fast rules as to what is an appropriate punishment for a particular offence. What is important is that staff are consistent and pupils know that inappropriate behaviour will be dealt with and not ignored.

Staff will always deliver consequences calmly and with care.

All members of staff have statutory authority to discipline pupils whose behaviour is considered unacceptable. Teachers can discipline pupils at any time the pupil is in school, including school visits.

Heads of Year, Behaviour for Learning Leaders and Senior Leaders can impose detentions outside school hours and they can also confiscate pupils' property. These will always be made clear to pupils and parents and only be set if they do not compromise a pupil's safety.

All punishments will be reasonable and proportionate, taking into account of the pupil's age, any special educational needs or disability and any religious requirements.

[Appendix A outlines the consequences system for use in lessons and Appendix I outlines how it is recorded by the Behaviour for Learning Points system).

6. Confiscation of inappropriate items

All members of staff have powers to confiscate, retain and dispose of a pupil's property as a punishment as long as it is reasonable in the circumstances.

All members of staff can confiscate and dispose of any prohibited food and drinks. Pupils will be asked by the member of staff to place these items in the bin and form tutors will be informed so that parents can be contacted.

- Prohibited food: sugar filled candy sticks and all sugary confectionary such as lollies/blue sweets.
- Prohibited drinks: No cans or bottles of fizzy drinks apart from the ones sold in the canteen/vending machine.

For any other type of item (see Appendix I for further details) can only be confiscated by Pastoral Support Assistants, a Head of Year, a Behaviour Leader or a Senior Leader, unless there is a situation in which failing to act and confiscate would result in the injury of a pupil, parent or member of staff.

7. Mobile Phones

Students are allowed to use their mobile phones on School site, however there are restrictions to their use:

- Phones are to be switched off before students enter classrooms
- Students are not permitted to use their phone to view inappropriate material i.e. pornography, graphic violence.
- Students are permitted to use phones during break and lunch times only
- Videos are not permitted to be made on School site or any photos taken of other students or staff members.

If a student is found to be using their mobile phone during lesson time, the student's phone will be confiscated by the member of staff (part of consequence system) and the phone handed into reception for the student to pick up at the end of the School day.

If there are videos/images found that are inappropriate, then phones are confiscated and incident(s) reported to DSL for further action to be taken in line with our Safeguarding Policy.

8. Searching and screening

Pupils have the right to a reasonable level of personal privacy, and staff should be aware that a pupils' expectation of privacy increases as they get older. School staff can search a pupil for any item if the pupil agrees. All searches of any possessions must be carried out in the presence of the pupil. There is no legal requirement to inform parents before a search takes place or to seek their consent to search their child.

The Headteacher has authorised Pastoral Support Assistants, Heads of Year, Behaviour Leads and Senior Leaders to have the statutory power to search pupils or their possessions, without consent, where they have a reasonable grounds for suspecting that the pupil may have a prohibited item (Appendix I). Searches can take place on the school premises, school trips and training settings.

The screening can involve a walk-through or hand-held metal detector. If a pupil refused to be screened, the Headteacher may refuse to have the pupil on the premises.

All searches will be carried out by a member of staff of the same sex as the pupil, and with a second member of staff as a witness (if possible of the same sex). The only exception to these two rules is if the member of staff authorised to carry out a search believes that there is a serious risk that serious harm will be caused to a person if the search is not carried out immediately.

As a result of a search, authorised staff can seize any item they consider harmful or detrimental to school discipline. Trained staff will decide on what to do next with the item seized, according to most up to date governmental guidance.

9. Practical steps for managing and modifying poor behaviour

Engagement with learning is always the primary aim. Although there are occasions when it is necessary, every minute a pupil is out of your lesson is one where they are not learning. Steps should always be gone through with care and consideration, taking individual needs into account where necessary. Praise the behaviour you want to see. Do not pander to attention seekers. All pupils must be given 'take up time' in between steps.

When teaching:

- Ensure that all resources are prepared in advance.
- Praise the behaviour you want to see more of.
- Praise children doing the right thing more than criticising those who are doing the wrong thing (parallel praise).
- Differentiate.
- Stay calm.
- Have clear routines for transitions and for stopping the class.
- Teach children the class routines.

For the vast majority of pupils a gentle reminder in the right direction is all that is needed. Practical steps that could be used to do this include:

- A reminder of the expectations for pupils delivered privately to the pupil. The teacher makes them aware of their behaviour. The pupil has a choice to do the right thing.
- A clear verbal warning delivered privately to the pupil making them aware of their behaviour and clearly outlining the consequences if they continue. The pupil has a choice to do the right thing. Pupils will be reminded of their good previous good conduct to prove that they can make good choices.
- The time-out: The pupil is asked to speak to the teacher away from others, boundaries are reset and the pupil is asked to reflect on their next step. They are reminded of their previous conduct/attitude/learning.

10. Behaviour for Learning support for pupils

The following structures exist within the school to support pupils whose behaviour is causing concern. Referral to these areas of support is via the Head of Year and in all cases parental involvement is essential.

This is not an exhaustive list of the support available for pupils. At Holy Trinity Catholic School we recognise that each pupil is a unique individual with varying backgrounds, circumstances and needs and as such, our response and support for Behaviour for Learning for each pupil is as unique and varied as they are.

a. Behaviour Support Unit

The Behaviour Support Unit is used in a two-pronged approach to support Behaviour for Learning. In addition to its use to house pupils who are sanctioned with C4 and C5 consequences, the Behaviour Support Unit is also used to proactively support pupils who demonstrate behaviour that is not deemed consistently to the standard required at Holy Trinity Catholic School.

Small group and individual support work is conducted to address barriers to Behaviour for Learning and provide pupils with positive learning behaviours so that they can learn to love and love to learn.

b. Behaviour Support Plan

A hierarchical system of behaviour support plans are used to support pupils to demonstrate excellent Behaviour for Learning in lessons and around school. These plans identify barriers to excellence and monitor the steps the pupil is taking to make improvements to their Behaviour for Learning. The hierarchical nature ensures that pupils can receive varying degrees of support and intervention based on their need.

[Staff must use the Behaviour Support Plan system as outlined in Appendix B]

c. Multi-agency assessment

Continuing disruptive behaviour might be the result of unmet educational or other needs. School staff will follow the school's safeguarding policy if they suspect that a child is suffering or is likely to suffer significant harm.

Multi-agency assessments can be lead in school or supported by outside school agencies. Collaboration between Pastoral Team, SENCO and Designated Safeguarding Leads will identify the appropriate level of support required.

d. Managed moves and alternative provision

In the event that a pupil's behaviour does not improve to the standards required by the Governing Body Statement of Behaviour Principles, despite all interventions put in place to support the pupil, and as a last resort and when all other options have been exhausted, alternative provision or a managed move to another educational institution could be arranged.

Any managed moves are completed in line with the Central Network Sharing Panel and Managed Move Protocols from December 2020, which ensures schools in the Central Network are compliant with statutory requirements of the Schools Admissions Code and Birmingham Local Authority's Fair Access Protocol of December 2017.

Holy Trinity Catholic School will work in collaboration with other schools to ensure appropriate preventative interventions ahead of any Managed Move to minimise the pupil's time out of school, to secure an appropriate school placement and to minimise the number of pupils permanent excluded.

All decisions about fixed term exclusions and permanent exclusions are decided by the Headteacher, in conjunction with Deputy Headteacher and Behaviour Leads.

11. Power to use reasonable force and the use of restraint.

Members of staff have the power to use reasonable force to issue restraint as a last resort and with the intention to prevent pupils from committing an offence, injuring themselves or others, or damaging property and to maintain good order and discipline in the classroom.

A list of trained staff which the Governing Body has granted authority to use restraint can be found in our Restraint Policy / Holding- Use of Reasonable Force in Schools (Sept 2018). The use of restraint is always as a last resort and always in line with what it is stipulated in this policy.

12. Monitoring, evaluation and review of the Behaviour for Learning policy.

This will be carried out as part of Holy Trinity Catholic School's Self-Evaluation Framework. The school's Governing Body will review this policy annually, or sooner, if deemed necessary.

Appendix I – List of prohibited items

What the law allows:

There are two sets of legal provisions which enable school staff to confiscate items from pupils:

1. The general power to discipline
2. Power to search without consent for “prohibited items” including:
  - Knives and weapons
  - Alcohol
  - Illegal drugs or paraphernalia
  - Stolen items
  - Vapes/Tobacco and cigarette papers
  - Fireworks
  - Pornographic images
  - Any article that has been or is likely to be used to commit an offence, cause personal injury or damage to property; and
  - Any item banned by the school rules which has been identified in the rules as an item which may be searched for.
  - Any items whereby religious, political or gang affiliated views prejudices or could harm the emotional wellbeing of other.

The legislation sets out what must be done with prohibited items found as a result of a search.

Weapons and knives and extreme or child pornography must always be handed over to the police, otherwise it is for the teacher to decide if and when to return a confiscated item.

The Education Act 2011 amended the power in the Education Act 1996: when an electronic device, such as a mobile phone, has been seized by a member of staff who has been formally authorised by the Head teacher, that staff member can examine data or files, and delete these, where there is good reason to do so. This power applies to all schools and there is no need to have parental consent to search through a young person’s mobile phone.
