Holy Trinity's Christmas Reading Challenge!

This Christmas season, Holy Trinity invites all students to take part in our Christmas Reading Challenge! Complete a row, column, or diagonal of activities (just like BINGO!) and return your finished sheet to Mrs Smith for a chance to win a special prize.

Read a book about a holiday.	Read a book where the main character learns an important lesson.	Read a non-fiction book about a holiday, winter, winter activities, or winter sports.	Read a mystery that takes place in winter.
Read a book with red or green on the cover.	Read a book that someone gifts you this season.	Read a book with a star on the front cover.	Read a poetry book with winter or holiday themes
Read a book whose title includes a winter word (snow, frost, ice, holiday, etc.)	Read a book that's title begins with 'C'.	Read a book featuring a journey or adventure through winter.	Read a book while drinking hot chocolate!
Read a book with a candle, tree, snowflake, star, or gift on the cover.	Read to a family member, friend or pet.	Read a book set in a cold place.	Read a story about giving or kindness.

How to Participate

1. Complete four activities in a straight line—vertical, horizontal, or diagonal.
2. Record each title or written activity in the grid.
3. Turn it in after the break for a chance to win! Deadline: January 22nd in SMI1.11.

✦ Have fun reading! ✦
